The Woodlands

Nestled among the towering pine trees, The Woodlands is a vibrant destination where world-class shopping, unforgettable dining, and outdoor adventure come together. Just a short drive from Houston, it's easy to reach, and once you're there, everything you need is just a step outside. In the same day, you browse one of the region's best shopping centers, paddle across a scenic lake, and savor award-winning cuisine. And with luxury hotels and one of the world's top-ranked outdoor amphitheaters, The Woodlands has all the makings of a perfect getaway.

Since its beginnings as a master-planned community in 1974, The Woodlands has grown into one of Texas's top shopping and dining destinations. From beloved department stores to stylish boutiques, casual bites to upscale cuisine, everything is within easy walking distance. Stroll through over 160 shops and restaurants at The Woodlands Mall or enjoy the open-air charm of Market Street. Afterward, unwind with a spa day at a nearby hotel or savor a delicious meal along the scenic waterway.

Beyond shopping and dining, The Woodlands is home to one of the world's top outdoor concert venues: The Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion. Regularly ranked among Pollstar's "Top 5 Outdoor Amphitheaters," the Pavilion hosts some of the biggest names in music and serves as the summer home of the Houston Symphony and a beloved stage for the Houston Ballet. Be sure to check the concert schedule—you just might catch your favorite artist performing under the stars.

While The Woodlands is known for its urban amenities, it's also a gateway to the natural beauty of the Texas Piney Woods. Just steps from The Pavilion, you can rent a kayak at Riva Row Boathouse and paddle along a scenic canal that leads to Lake Woodlands. Prefer to stay on land? Explore over 200 miles of trails perfect for walking, running, or biking—whether you're out for a quick stroll or a longer adventure, there's a path waiting for you.
