Mammoth Lake

Scuba diving in Texas? Yes, it's very much a real thing at the 55-acre Mammoth Lake Waterpark, the largest scuba diving-specific lake in the United States. Below the surface of the water, you'll explore a sunken C-130 cargo plane, various boats, and even remnants of the former AstroWorld. A full-service scuba shop with a complete selection of rental gear is available. Courses are also offered at Mammoth Lake Waterpark, which is a Professional Association of Diving Instructors-certified facility. The lake offers ample space for swimming, paddling, and camping, and is a popular location for triathlon training.
