Events in The Woodlands

With upscale shopping and endless outdoor activities, The Woodlands is a year-round destination with something for every traveler. Beyond the everyday fun, it also hosts a variety of family-friendly annual events worth planning a trip around. Keep reading to discover some of the top events that make The Woodlands even more memorable.

April

The Woodlands Waterway Arts Festival

Enjoy a one-of-a-kind celebration of fantastic art, magnificent Texas music, and tasty food and drink at The Woodlands Waterway Arts Festival. For three days in early April, The Waterway and Town Green Park become the most happening place in town. Works from more than 200 artists are featured, as well as the marvelous melodies of Latin-inspired bands. A craft beer garden, chef demonstrations, and interactive family activities are all part of the fun. The Woodlands, TX 77380

July

Red Hot and Blue

Celebrate Independence Day in style at Red Hot and Blue, The Woodlands' Fourth of July celebration. Live music, face painting, strolling performers, and watermelon and hot dog eating contests are among the day's festivities. The party is capped in the most American way possible: with a stunning fireworks show. This event is free and open to the public.

November

The Woodlands Children's Festival

This annual festival, held at The Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion, gives children a fun and interactive environment to let their imaginations run wild. Renowned children's entertainers, music, pantomime, theater, science experiments, stories, and so much more are available to entertain and educate in equal measure. The event is best suited for kiddos up to intermediate school age. Tickets are available online and at the gate.

The Woodlands Ice Rink

From mid-November to mid-January, The Woodlands Ice Rink opens for its winter season, transforming The Woodlands into an icy wonderland. Strap on your ice skates and glide on the recently built ice rink facility that turns into the House of Blues during the summer months. Skate rentals are available on site, and there is also a separate rink just for younger skaters.
