The San Luis Resort, Spa & Conference Center

Step onto your private balcony and take in the sight of an endless stretch of blue-green surf crashing on to miles of soft sun-kissed beaches. Savor a sumptuous meal before pampering yourself with a massage and pedicure. When the sun sets, sip a glass of wine at an upscale lounge or order a martini from a swim-up pool bar.

Stay at The San Luis Resort, Spa & Conference Center, a AAA Four Diamond Galveston resort, and these experiences can be yours. With its luxurious accommodations, on-site dining, and full-service spa, The San Luis Resort is an idyllic location for romantic retreats, weekend getaways, and family vacations.

Located just steps away from the sandy beaches of the Texas Gulf Coast, the Galveston hotel puts you right in the middle of all that the island has to offer.

Your getaway to The San Luis Resort begins in your well-appointed room furnished with an array of upscale comforts. All of the resort's 250 rooms feature a Keurig coffee maker, Molton Brown bathroom amenities, and a private balcony with outdoor seating from where you can take in a breathtaking view of the coast. In your room, you'll also find a flat-screen TV and complimentary wireless internet access for your entertainment. The types of rooms range from a 356-square-foot unit with either a king bed or two queens to the adults-only Club Ten Corner Suite. Opt for the suite and you'll enjoy a complimentary mini-bottle of Champagne, bottled water, snacks, valet service, and remarkable views from the 10th floor of the resort.

No matter which room style you choose, you'll rest easy in the lap of luxury. So much so that you may forget what else the resort has to offer. With its inviting water and serene ambience, a stop by the heated swimming pool should be at the top of your list of things to do. Find a sunny spot and work on your tan or kick back in a shaded cabana with VIP food and beverage service, fresh fruit, and a cooler with chilled water. When you get thirsty, float on over to the swim-up bar and order a glass of beer or a margarita. If you want to take your relaxation to the next level, book a rejuvenating massage or a body scrub at the resort's full-service spa. Not only can you get a manicure/pedicure and a hydrotherapy treatment, the spa offers men's and women's haircuts and stylings, facials, and eye lash enhancements.

Now that you're relaxed and looking your best, it's time to partake in The San Luis Resort's on-site dining. Home to 10 unique restaurants ranging from the upscale to casual, you'll find something that will please your palate. For an elegant dining experience, head to the award-winning The Steakhouse, which was voted as the "Best Place for Steak" on the Gulf Coast by the readers of Texas Monthly. On the menu, you'll find USDA Midwest grain-fed beef, Maine lobster, and an extensive wine selection.

If you're in the mood for Italian, head to the Grotto for its range of delicious dishes crafted using homemade pasta. Find out more about The San Luis Resort's restaurants here. If authentic comfort food is what you want, visit Blake's Bistro for oversized sandwiches, gourmet burgers, fresh salads and more.

Galveston is a world-class shopping destination, and you don't even have to leave the resort to experience it. Shop for one-of-a-kind designer pieces from Kendra Scott, Tommy Bahama, Trina Turk, and Robert Graham at Style & Trend, or pick up all the essentials you need for your stay at Essentials. Browse a selection of designer swimwear, resort wear and accessories for women, featuring renowned brands such as Tory Burch Swim, Seafolly, Tigerlilly, and more!

When you're ready to experience Galveston Island, you won't have to go far. For some time on the beach, walk across Galveston's famed Seawall Boulevard. Moody Gardens, Schlitterbahn Galveston Island Waterpark, and all the shops, restaurants, and cultural attractions of the Strand Historic District are within four miles of the resort.

Experience all the island has to offer, then come back to The San Luis Resort for an evening of rest and relaxation. You'll need all you can get, as a new day awaits in The Oleander City.
