Wings Over Houston Airshow Ticket Information

Listen to the roar of jet engines and watch as historic warbirds soar in the skies above at the Wings Over Houston Airshow. For two days Ellington Airport is an aviation enthusiast's dreamland. Witness a thrilling five-hour airshow starring the U.S. Navy Blue Angels, U.S. Coast Guard, world-renowned aerobatic champions Sean D. Tucker and Debby Rihn-Harvey, the Screaming Sasquatch jet Waco flown by John Klatt, and more. Get an up-close view of legendary planes and helicopters from the 20th century, including a B-17 Flying Fortress, C-47 That's All, Brother (lead plane taking paratroopers into D-Day), P-51 Mustang, and the AH-64 Apache.

Don't miss all the other attractions that can be found at Ellington Airport during the airshow. Step inside the immersive NASA Driven to Explore Exhibit, Meet and hear the stories of aviation legends and military veterans at the Legends & Heroes Autograph Tent before heading to the Military Reenactor Camp to see World War II vehicles, equipment, and uniforms. There's even a special play area for kids that features a rock-climbing wall, inflatable slides and obstacles, carnival-style games and rides, and more.
