La Grange Hometown, Texas

Tourism in La Grange has something for everyone. Whether you are conducting research about your ancestry, enjoy nature adventures, love visiting historical sites or just want to get away for the weekend, La Grange, Texas is the place for you.

Nestled along the Colorado River and surrounded by oak, pecan and pine trees, you can expect a relaxed way of life. From boutique shopping in our beautiful town square, exploring our German and Czech heritage, to enjoying a canoe/kayak trip down the Colorado River or biking one of our scenic country bike routes, La Grange truly is a unique experience.

Monument Hill
State Park

Old Fayette County Jail

La Grange is rich in culture and history with Monument Hill State Park, The Faison Home, the Railroad Depot Museum, the Old Fayette County Jail and the infamous "Chicken Ranch;" as well as sitting on the Texas Independence Trail, exploring the story of how Texas won its freedom from Mexico.

We offer a multitude of activities for all ages including country arts and crafts shows, antique fairs, historical tours, geo-catching, air shows, a public library, museums and much more.

La Grange is conveniently located between Austin, Houston and San Antonio allowing one to enjoy small town life, yet still be centered in between Texas' largest cities.

Be part of a charming town, just waiting to welcome you.
